

How does a retailer ensure that a company they are buying from is in good standing with the NOP? Is there a list of de-accredited farms or companies?

At this time, NOP has not published a list of operations that have been suspended, revoked, or have surrendered their certification. But retailers can check with the certifying agent of the operation to verify the validity of a certification.

e-CFR